Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The Library's collections contain substantial holdings concerning advertising and consumerism. The 15-16 allocation for monographs in Communication is approximately $13,500. Journals are purchased in packages. The cost of relevant journals in Communications is not broken out by department.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions will be required for students.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new one-time or ongoing library costs associated with this course.
