LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: HDF 3XX Introduction to Early Intervention_____

Department, College: HDF/CHS_____

Faculty Member: _Karen McCurdy_____

Date returned to Faculty: 12/2/2021_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library holds both historic and current resources in relevant subject categories. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for HDF for 2021-22 is approximately $2500. The cost of database and journal subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

Yes. The library has online access to the Journal of Early Intervention from 1981 – the present. With regard to the additional resources listed, the library has paper copies of Pediatrics from 1948 – 2005. The library has online access to Research in Developmental Disabilities from 1987 forward. We do not subscribe to the Journal of Autism and Developmental Disabilities. Students may use Library Interlibrary Loan Services to receive articles from this journal.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No library information mastery sessions appear to be required for students in this course.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
