Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library holds both historic and current materials in relevant subject areas. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for Marine Affairs for 2021-22 is approximately $2,000.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

URI Subscribes to the journals listed in the “essential journals” category in the Faculty Questionnaire. In addition, concerning the “additional materials’ listed, URI has access to the Journal of Ethnographic and Qualitative Research from 2007 forward. Some parts of the journal Visual Ethnography are available as “Open Access” publications at the journal’s home page.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No library information mastery sessions appear to be required for students in this course.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
