LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: MUS461 Piano Pedagogy

Department, College: MUS/A&S

Faculty Member: Manabu Takasawa

Date returned to Faculty: 10/5/21

Librarian Completing Assessment: Jim Kinnie

Collection Management Officer: Joanna Burkhardt

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?
2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?
3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?
4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?
5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

URI Libraries holds the essential and non-essential resources cited in the course request form including the RILM database that will supplement Music Index Online. In addition, there are 101 books with the subject heading, 'Piano – Instruction and Study' and 19 books with the subject, Piano – methods.'

For broader topics related to the assignments, the library has access to the databases ERIC (education) and Proquest One Business, as well as several biographical databases.

URI Libraries has sufficient resources to support this course.
