The Joint Senate-Administrative University Advisory Committee on Educational Policy endorses the University's proposal to undertake a major self-study of the philosophy and objectives of the University, our strength and weaknesses, and our plans for attaining these objectives. The Joint Senate Educational Policy Committee recommends to the Faculty Senate that this program be undertaken as soon as possible. Furthermore, consistent with the scope of the study the Administration of the University is urged to provide appropriate personnel support for the study. It is hoped that the study can be completed in approximately 18 months.
