LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: _PRS 441 Public Relations Practice_____

Department, College: Harrington School/A&S_____

Faculty Member: Regina Bell_____

Date returned to Faculty: 03/11/21_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library holds historic and current materials in relevant subject categories. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for 2020-21 is approximately $7500. The cost of subscriptions to journals and databases is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

The URI Libraries have recently purchased an online subscription to the New York Times, allowing unlimited access to students, faculty and staff. We also have archives of NYT and its index going back to 1851.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required for the support of this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Library information mastery sessions are not required for students in this course. The library is able to supply instruction concerning library resources as needed.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
