Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library holds new and historic materials in relevant subject categories. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for TMD for 2021 is approximately $4,000. The cost of journal and database subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

URI has the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. In addition, we have access to all of the journals listed in the section for additional materials, except for the International Journal of Fashion Studies and the International Journal of Sales, Retailing and Marketing.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required for the support of this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Library Information mastery sessions are not required for student in this course. However, should the instructor need assistance the Instruction Unit of the Public Services Department in the Library is available by appointment to assist.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
