LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: GWS 350: Black Feminisms

Department, College: Gender & Womens Studies, College of Arts & Sciences

Faculty Member: Professor Ulli Ryder

Date returned to Faculty: February 8, 2021

Librarian Completing Assessment: Professor Mary MacDonald

Collection Management Officer: Professor Joanna Burkhardt

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?
2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?
3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?
4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?
5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

The URI Libraries have relevant and timely collection of materials to support GWS 350: Black Feminisms, proposed by Dr. Ryder. There is adequate funding for any books has required for the course.
