Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library has recent holdings for both animation and Chinese animation. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for Languages for 2019-2020 is approximately $6,000. The cost of journal and database subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. The books listed as additional resources have been ordered.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Students in the course are not required to attend information mastery sessions.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

Approximate cost to purchase the books requested is approximately $150 and can be accommodated within the annual allocation for Languages.
