Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The URI Libraries hold substantial current and historic materials in relevant subject categories. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for the Pell Library for 2019-2020 is approximately $6500. There are allocations in other relevant subject areas as well. The cost of journal/database subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

The library has online access (and a paper copy at the Kingston campus) to the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required for the support of this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Library instruction can be scheduled by individual instructors as needed.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
