Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library has current materials in relevant subject categories. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for 2019/20 for Languages is approximately $6,000. The cost of journal subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

URI has online access to the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire, as well as those listed as supporting but not essential.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required for the support of this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Information mastery sessions may be scheduled by individual faculty member by contacting the Instruction unit of the Public Services Department at the Library.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new or ongoing costs to the library for the support of this course.
