Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library has current holdings in relevant subject categories. The allocation for monographic acquisitions for Languages for 2019-20 is approximately $6,000. There are sufficient funds to purchase new materials if required.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

The URI Library in Kingston has all the materials noted as essential on the Faculty Questionnaire, except for the book by Drake, which I have ordered.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required for the support of this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are required for the students. They will not conduct research for this class.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
