Report No. 71-72-6

January 24, 1972

CURRICULAR REPORT FROM THE GRADUATE COUNCIL TO THE FACULTY SENATE

At its meeting No. 93 on January 21, 1972 the Graduate Council considered and approved the following curricular matters which are now submitted to the Faculty Senate for information or confirmation as indicated.

I. Matters of Information

A. College of Arts & Sciences

GEG 446: Geography of the Polar Regions--change in year offered to Semester II (Delete statement, "In alternate years, next offered 1971-72"; course will be offered every spring semester.)

II. Matters Requiring Confirmation by the Faculty Senate

A. College of Arts & Sciences

I. Department of English

a. Add (New)

ENG 420(104) The Ballad

Summer Session II, 3 credits

Study of the Western European ballad tradition, with particular emphasis on the development of that tradition in Britain and America. Traditional, broadside, and native American ballad texts will be analyzed; the processes of variation, rationalization, and localization studied; the relationships between the folk ballad and the literary ballad treated. Musical knowledge is not a prerequisite, although taped and recorded illustrations will be used. Koch

(If the CCA considers that a number at the 900 level is more appropriate for ENG 420, the Council would accept this without reviewing the course.)

2. Department of Computer Science

a. Add (New)

CSC 535 Information Organization and Retrieval

II, 3 credits

Construction and accessing of large data bases; document classification, retrieval, and evaluation techniques; automatic dictionary and thesaurus construction; natural language content analysis; question answering systems. (Lec 3) Prerequisite: CSC 413. Weiderman
