Course: SPC 505 Leading Ethically_____

Department, College: P&CS/CPCS_____

Faculty Member: Peter Nye_____

Date returned to Faculty: 11/22/19_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library holds current materials in relevant subject areas. The allocation for the purchase of monographic materials for 2019-20 is approximately $10,000.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. Of those listed as recommended, URI either holds subscriptions to the titles or they are freely available on the Internet.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Instructors may make arrangements for library instruction for their classes at the beginning of any semester.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new or continuing costs to the library for the support of this course.
