Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

   The Library has current relevant materials in all associated subject categories. The library has both monographs and journals in relevant subjects. There is currently no specific allocation for purchase of materials for credit courses offered by the Library. However, there is money available in related subject areas that can be directed to purchase of materials for this course if needed.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

   The instructor indicates that the library already owns the journals necessary for the support of this course.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

   No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are required for students in this class. The instructor may make an appointment with the Instruction Unit in the Library at the beginning of any semester should she feel the students would benefit from Library Instruction.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new/ongoing costs to acquire materials for the support of this course.
