C. Procedures for Temporary Courses:

The Curricular Affairs Committee recommends that the Faculty Senate approve the following amended version of section 8.43.13 of the University Manual (change is underlined):

8.43.13 A temporary course shall have the approval of the department(s) proposing it, the dean(s) of the college(s) involved, and the Curricular Affairs Committee and/or the Graduate Council, except that a temporary University College mini-course (a one-credit lower-level undergraduate course taught during the fall or spring semester) does not require the approval of the Curricular Affairs Committee. The Curricular Affairs Committee shall, however receive information about any temporary University College mini-course after it has been approved by the college dean. The Graduate Council may refuse to grant or may attach conditions to the granting of graduate program credit for ^{temporary} course. Each college may require internal channels of approval in addition to those specified here.
