From the documentation: “The objective of this course is to provide students in the International Relations program with practical skill based training and non-research self-directed experience related to their coursework and field of study. Experiential projects may be completed abroad as an international component of graduate study.”

This internship does not require any real bibliographic support.

Whatever little is needed bibliographically for this experience, the library is able to support. If bibliographic instruction is required for this internship, the instructor for the course should contact our information literacy specialists through the Information and Research Help Desk at 874-2653.
