FACULTY SENATE

On March 24, 1977, the Faculty Senate approved the following recommendation of the University College and General Education Committee:

That the two experimental courses developed by the College of Arts and Sciences be assigned general-education divisions in accordance with the requests made. These assignments are to last as long as the courses maintain the experimental designation.

ATS 100X Learning to Think Critically I and II, 6 each

The six credits may be distributed by students in Division A, B, C with three credits in each of two of the three divisions.

EDC/PHL 100X Reading and Reasoning 1,3 credits

Division D
