LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: CHS 605 Contemporary Issues in Health Sciences_____

Department, College: College of Health Science_____

Faculty Member: Deb Riebe_____

Date returned to Faculty: _2-19-19_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

There are substantial holdings in the library collections in relevant subject categories. While the College of Health Science does not have a separate allocation of funds for the purchase of monographs, each of the disciplines under the umbrella of the College has an allocation. Funds are available in all subject areas for the purchase of monographs. The cost of journals and databases is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

URI Library subscribes to all the essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are required for this course. Individual instructors may make an appointment with the Instruction Unit at the Library should a session be needed.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
