Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

URI Libraries have substantial holdings in relevant subject categories. The 2018-19 allocation for the purchase of monographs for Education is approximately $5,000. The cost of journal subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

Teaching Exceptional Children is available in paper from 1972 – 2008. It is also available online from 2001 to the present.

Journal of Special Education is available in paper from 1999-2008 and online from 1996 to the present.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?
No information mastery sessions are required for students.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are not additional costs to the library for the support of this course.
