~NOTE: Students who can successfully pass competency examinations in ~~Speech 101 or 102 (administered by the Speech Department); and/or Mathematics 107 (administered by the Mathematics Department)~~ will be exempt from these courses and requirements. A student who ~~passes~~ passes such an examination will earn both credit and exemption from the course."

RATIONALE: The Committee is satisfied that the Human Science and Services proposal is in compliance with the University General Education requirements as stated on page 10 of the 1978-79 Catalogue. It is also persuaded that the restrictions imposed in Divisions B and C, and the 6-credit minimum in Division D, are appropriate to the needs of the students in the College.
