ACADEMIC STANDARDS AND CALENDAR COMMITTEE

Report #78-79-5

March 20, 1979

BACKGROUND:

In February, this committee was asked by the Faculty Senate Executive Committee on behalf of the Division of University Extension to review University Manual paragraph 8.39.70. This paragraph now reads in part:

8.39.70 An auditor is any person who has permission to attend a courseAuditors shall be charged no fees for auditing a class.

Adherence to the last sentence of this regulation can cause serious financial problems especially for the Division of University Extension.

Our committee discussed this problem and came to agree that in this case the fee charged for auditing is not a matter of academic standards but rather one of administrative management. Hence, we are recommending deletion of the last sentence of the paragraph.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Academic Standards and Calendar Committee recommends that the last sentence of University Manual paragraph 8.39.70 be deleted.

XX.XX.XD At least once each academic year the Academic Standards and Calendar Committee shall request of and shall receive from the several undergraduate colleges particulars on all petitions which requested grants of exceptions to courses of study, to other degree requirements, and to any other academic rule established by the General Faculty.

Our four legislative recommendations are reproduced as requested, below.

Legislative Recommendations

XX.XX.XA Every undergraduate college shall establish and publish procedures for dealing with student requests for exceptions to courses of study or to other degree requirements or academic rules prescribed by that college or by the General Faculty.

XX.XX.XB Undergraduate students seeking exceptions to any University rule pertaining to their academic circumstances, including degree requirements and courses of study, shall do so by written petitions submitted to the students' respective deans. Copies of all such petitions shall be preserved by the respective deans for not less than two years.

XX.XX.XC No waiver of any college or university rule or requirement pertaining to an individual student's academic circumstances may be granted except in conformity with XX.XX.XA and XX.XX.XB.

XX.XX.XD At least once each academic year the Faculty Senate Academic Standards and Calendar Committee shall request of and shall receive from the several undergraduate colleges particulars on all petitions which requested grants of exception to courses of study, to other degree requirements, and to any other academic rule established by the General Faculty.
