FACULTY SENATE

CONSTITUTION, BY-LAWS AND UNIVERSITY MANUAL COMMITTEE REPORT #1978-79-3

Sections 8.62.10 through 8.62.20 of the University Manual

In response to recommendations on late registration fee proposed by the Registrar's Advisory Committee and endorsed by the Council of Deans, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee requested that the CBUM Committee recommend to the Faculty Senate appropriate changes in the University Manual.

A. Recommendation:

The CBUM Committee recommends that the Faculty Senate delete present section 8.62.10 of the University Manual and replace the section with the following new 8.60.15:

8.60.15 A late registration fee shall be charged unless excused by the Registrar.

Rationale: The CBUM Committee believes that the section on late registration fees more appropriately belongs under Registration Procedures (8.60.10 - 8.60.14). The new wording allows the Registrar to implement the following new procedures on late registration fee:

Late Registration Fee

1. The late registration fee apply to the academic year on the Kingston campus only. The fee will not be assessed for any registrations processed through the Division of University Extension, including the Summer Session.
2. In order to provide registration service on Registration Day to those students who have day-time employment, Registration Day be extended by permitting entry to Keaney until 6:00 p.m. Faculty processing of registrations in Keaney will be expected to continue until at least 7:00 p.m.
3. The late registration fee be assessed to all matriculated students beginning the first day of classes and continuing as follows:
 - a) $15 during the week in which Registration Day falls;
 - b) $50 thereafter.
4. Continuous Registration (CRG) requests received in the mail will be dated according to the postmark and the late registration fee will be assessed accordingly.
5. After the end of the "add" period, approval to register will not be granted by the academic dean except in response to extenuating circumstances.
