FACULTY SENATE

In order to resolve the conflict between the scheduling of the convention of the League of American Wheelman and the end of the schedule of the academic semester, Spring 1980, and in light of the memorandum to Chairperson Al Swonger from William R. Ferrante dated December 20, 1979, to wit:

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND
Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs

Memorandum

To: Al Swonger, Chairman
Faculty Senate

From: William R. Ferrante
Vice President for Academic Affairs

Date: December 20, 1979

The following statement represents my personal view and the view of President Newman. Because of his absence from the campus, I am presenting and signing the statement in his behalf with his full knowledge and support.

The issue of the calendar has been and should be separate from the issue of the contract. In keeping with this principal, the Administration will not raise the issue of the number of class days in the academic year, should we go to arbitration over pay for the period when the faculty was on strike.
