Academic Standards and Calendar Committee
Report #79-80-5

BACKGROUND:

In 1978 the Faculty Senate passed legislation fixing the Academic Calendars for the years 1978-79 through 1982-83. (See F.S. Minutes, #11-78-3-9) However, over the past several years, a number of concerns have been voiced by students, faculty, and/or staff about the planned Spring Semester calendars. One is over the long uninterrupted stretch of classes from the beginning of the semester until Spring Recess which occurs in some semesters. The other is that reading days are usually scheduled on Saturdays and Sundays instead of on week-days.

In response to these concerns, the Faculty Senate, in February, 1979, approved a recommendation to modify the planned Spring 1980 Calendar by adding a holiday around Washington's Birthday and by scheduling reading days on week-days instead of week-ends. (These recommendations would have been followed had not events made other changes desirable.) This year the Academic Standards and Calendar Committee is making similar recommendations for the Spring 1981 Calendar.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Academic Standards and Calendar Committee recommends that the existing Spring Semester calendar for 1980-81 be replaced with the calendar proposed on the following page:

L. Gemma (Std.)
J. Kowalski (Chairman)
