LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: _EDC 560 Advanced Qualitative Research Procedures_____

Department, College: _Joint URI/RIC PhD Program in Education_____

Faculty Member: _Annemarie Vaccaro_____

Date returned to Faculty: 9/22/18_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library has substantial holdings in relevant subject categories for both monographs and journals. The monographic allocation for Education for 2018-19 is approximately $5,000. The cost of journal subscriptions is not broken out by department or college.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

URI has the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required for the support of this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions appear to be required for the students. Instructors should be aware that they can make an appointment to bring their classes to the library as needed. Students often find it helpful to learn or refresh their knowledge about journal databases and how to find specific kinds of information.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
