FACULTY SENATE

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

January 8, 1981

Al Swonger
December 22, 1980

We expect to level off at about 500, but eventually add ten additional graduate students in the new Pharm.D. program. This seems to me to be a significant reduction, particularly since over the same period the faculty has grown by seven positions (several of which are simply transfers from capitation to general revenue funding which, while requiring real resources, do not add real faculty time).

While we have achieved both these stated objectives, the problem is far more complicated than this implies. Planning must include the needs of and demands on each college and even each program, the need to maintain a central core, the desire to have a first-rate general education program, the attraction of students in areas of lower enrollment, the need to attract a high rate of applicants and many other factors.

The University's policy remains: level enrollment at Kingston; the restriction of enrollment growth in certain undergraduate programs at Kingston (e.g., Business, Pharmacy, Nursing); yearly rebalancing of both faculty resources and enrollments in order to meet planning goals.

The Faculty Senate Executive Committee recommends the following amendments to the sections of the University Manual on Annual Program Review:

1. Amend section 8.85.20 as follows (change is underlined):

8.85.20 Annual Review of New Programs. In January of each year, all new programs which require Regents' approval and/or the allocation of university funds, recommended by the Curricular Affairs Committee, Graduate Council, Research Policy and Facilities Committee, or any other group empowered to propose new programs, shall be reviewed and ranked according to procedures outlined in sections 8.85.21 and 8.85.22. Proposals for programs which were disapproved by the Faculty Senate, President or the Regents during the preceding year or which were not approved by the Regents within two years after approval by the Faculty Senate and the President shall be reconsidered by the group which originally proposed the program to the New Program Review Committee during its consideration of new programs upon the request of the sponsors of the program. If the program is reapproved it shall be forwarded to the New Program Review Committee for ranking.

2. Replace the existing section 8.85.22 with the following new section 8.85.22:

8.85.22 New programs shall be ranked according to the following four criteria, listed in order of importance, explained in detail in the Manual sections indicated: centrality of the program to the mission of the University of Rhode Island (8.86.41); extent to which the program would contribute to the university's fulfillment of its three main responsibilities, teaching, research and service (8.86.42); relationship of the program to the developmental plans of the university (8.86.43); projected cost effectiveness considerations (8.86.44).
