Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

This topic includes a number of subject areas. The URI Libraries have substantial holdings in relevant areas. The allocation for the purchase of monographs for the CEPS library for 2017-18 is approximately $10,000. The cost of journal subscriptions is not broken out by department. There are hundreds of relevant journals available through the Library website.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Information mastery sessions are not required for this course, but the library staff at CEPS can accommodate inclusion of sessions any time during the semester.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library associated with this course.
