Faculty Member: _Anne Seitsinger_____

Date returned to Faculty: May 30, 2018_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories? How much money is now allocated in the program subject area?

The URI Libraries hold substantial materials in relevant subject areas such as Business, Economics, Human Resources, and Leadership Development. We have access to hundreds of academic journals in these areas as well as current monographs.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the program (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

Existing resources are sufficient to support this course. No new library materials are required.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery classes are required for students in this program. The library is ready and willing to provide instruction relevant to this class, especially in the area of information literacy in current business practices.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs for library materials associated with this program.
