LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: _CHN 550/450 Topics in Chinese Linguistics_____

Department, College: _Languages, Arts and Sciences_____

Faculty Member: _Wayne Wenchao He_____

Date returned to Faculty: _10/16/17_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library holds current books and journals relevant to Chinese Linguistics. The Languages Department allocation for monograph purchases for 2017-18 is approximately $6,000.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. There is one recommended journal listed. The URI Library does not subscribe to this title. Professor He has indicated that he would post relevant articles from this journal on his Sakai site and would encourage, but not require, students to subscribe to this journal. The library does subscribe to 7 other journals that deal with Chinese linguistics.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

There are no required information mastery sessions for the students.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new or continuing costs for the library to support this course.
