LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: CHN 551/451 Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language: Advanced_____

Department, College: Languages, Arts and Sciences_____

Faculty Member: Wayne Wenchao He_____

Date returned to Faculty: _10/16/17_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The University Library has current books and journals relevant to teaching Chinese as a foreign language. The allocation for Languages for monographs for 2017-18 is approximately $6,000.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. There is one recommended journal: Chinese as a Foreign Language. The URI Library does not subscribe to this journal. Professor He has indicated that he would provide access to articles from this journal and would encourage, but not require students to subscribe individually. The library subscribes to several other journals concerning Chinese linguistics.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are required for the students.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
