LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: OCG 106G You, Me, and Life in the Sea_____

Department, College: GSO_____

Faculty Member: Kelton McMahon and Roxanne Beinart

Date returned to Faculty: 9/28/2017_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The University Libraries have extensive holdings in subject categories relating to this course. The current allocation for 2017-18 for monographic materials is approximately $6500. The cost of journals is not broken out by department.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. The library holds subscriptions to the types of resources noted and should have no trouble supporting this course with existing resources.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are required for the students. They will be using the InRhode Tutorials as part of the requirements for the course. Should the instructors feel that additional information/instruction in the use of library resources is needed, they may contact the Public Services Department to schedule an in-person instruction session.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs to the library for the support of this course.
