LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Program Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

The Collection Management Officer will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below, returning. Subject selectors who receive requests for Library Impact Statements for new programs should forward those requests to the CMO.

Program: International Studies and Diplomacy_____

Department, College: Interdisciplinary, Arts and Sciences_____

Faculty Member: _Marc Hutchison_____

Date returned to Faculty: _9/20/2017_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: _Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories? How much money is now allocated in the program subject area?

This program will be drawing on courses that already exist in Languages, Political Science and Economics. There are relevant library holdings in all three areas. The allocations for the three named areas are sufficient to support the program: Languages $6,000, Political Science $4,000 and Economics $5,000 allocated for the purchase of monographs. The journal budget is not separated out by department.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

The URI Libraries have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the program (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new resources are required to support this program.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Information Mastery sessions are available on request.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new library costs associated with this program.
