Report of the University Manual Committee
July 3, 1972

As Amended by Faculty Senate 72 9-21

The University Manual Committee recommends approval of the following changes in the Manual for distribution to the entire faculty:

CHANGE No. S-1 (Bill #71-72-30)

Add (new) 8.43.13 After approval at the department level, a copy of the title, subtitle and syllabus for an open-ended course shall be sent to the college curriculum committee via the Academic Dean, with an information copy to the Curricular Affairs Committee and, in the case of a graduate level course, to the Graduate Council.

Re-number present 8.43.13 as 8.43.20

CHANGE No. S-2 (Bill #71-72-42)

If offered twice, such offering must be within 2 successive calendar years.

Add (new) 8.43.14 An experimental course may be offered on a temporary basis, but not more than twice within ~~two successive calendar years~~ before it must be approved through the normal channels. Such an experimental course shall have the approval of the faculty of the department proposing the course and the Dean of the college concerned. After approval at the department level, informational copies of the title, subtitle and syllabus shall be sent to the college curriculum committee via the Academic Dean, to the Curricular Affairs Committee and, if a graduate level course, to the Graduate Council.

8.43.15 An experimental interdisciplinary course agreed upon by the faculties of any two or more departments within the University may be offered on a temporary basis, but not more than twice within ~~two successive calendar years~~ before it must be approved through the normal channels. If only one college is involved, such a course shall have the approval of the Dean of the college; if more than one college is involved, such a course shall be approved by the appropriate Deans and by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs. After approval at the department level, an information copy of the title, subtitle and syllabus shall be sent to the college(s) curriculum committee(s) via the Academic Dean(s), to the Curricular Affairs Committee and, if a graduate level course, to the Graduate Council.

CHANGE No. S-3 (Bill #71-72-43)

In Sec. 7.10.10, change "ASSISTANT LIBRARIANS" to read "INSTRUCTORS IN THE LIBRARY."

In Sec. 5.75.12, after ". . . and the University Librarian," add "or his designated representative."

CHANGE No. S-4 (Bill #70-71-21)

Add (new) 5.53.10 The Teaching Effectiveness Grants Committee. The purpose of this Committee shall be to encourage activities directed towards the improvement of teaching effectiveness in the University. It shall solicit, evaluate and award grants in support of proposals for projects aimed at the improvement of teaching effectiveness. From time to time, it shall publish reports on the results of projects completed or undertaken.

5.53.11 The activities to be supported shall include, but not be restricted to, production of innovative methods of teaching, production of courses (including experimental courses), production of class materials such as syllabi, course plans, audio-visual materials, etc. Project proposals the outcome of which seem to have potential for widest application shall be given high priority in consideration.

5.53.12 The Committee shall be composed of one member from the faculty of each college, to be appointed by the Dean of that College; the Vice-President for Academic Affairs; ~~the Vice-President for Development and Public Relations;~~ and three students (two undergraduates, one graduate), to be appointed by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs. The Committee shall elect its own chairman annually. The appointed faculty members shall serve three years, and the appointed student members one year. Any member may succeed himself on the Committee.
