Comment: At the present officers of the Naval War College write two term papers-- one for GEG 591-592 and the other for MAF 650 usually on related subjects. If this request is approved GEG 591-592 will be dropped and one major term paper required for MAF 650. It will allow the officer to concentrate his efforts on a single term paper with a consequent improvement in quality and to take an additional six credits of elective courses.
