LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: FLM/COM 417 Media Industry History and Practice _____

Department, College: Communications/Arts and Sciences _____

Faculty Member: Justin Wyatt _____

Date returned to Faculty: 4/17/17 _____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt _____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt _____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The University Libraries hold numerous monographs concerning film and the film industry. The 2016-17 allocation for Communications is approximately $11,800. Should this course require purchase of additional monographic material, there is plenty of money available in the current budget.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire. The Libraries hold subscriptions to many journals relevant to this course.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are specified for this course. Should an instructor find there is a need for library instruction he/she can contact the Public Services Department at the University Library and make an appointment for a session.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new library costs associated with this class.
