LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: OCG 150 Oceanographic Data in Rhode Island Waters_____

Department, College: Oceanography_____

Faculty Member: Christopher Kincaid and Kathleen Donohue_____

Date returned to Faculty: 1/10/17_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt_____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

URI holds considerable material relevant to this course, both journals and monographs. Money for journal subscriptions is not generally broken out by department level allocations. The monographic allocation for Oceanography for 2016-17 is part of the allocation for the Pell Marine Sciences Library. The allocation for the Pell Library is $6500.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

The URI Libraries have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions will be required for the students.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new or continuing costs to the library for the support of this course.
