LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT (New Course Proposal)
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Subject selectors will complete this form as requested, assessing library materials and collections as detailed below. Send one copy of the assessment to the faculty member who requested it. Send one copy of the assessment to the Collection Management Officer.

Course: LAN 220 Linguistics and Cultural Studies _____

Department, College: Languages, A&S _____

Faculty Member: Alexander Magidow _____

Date returned to Faculty:
_12/2/16_____

Librarian Completing Assessment: Joanna M. Burkhardt _____

Collection Management Officer: Joanna M. Burkhardt _____

Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The University Libraries have extensive collections concerning linguistics and culture. The 2016-17 allocation for monographic purchases for Languages is approximately $6300. Should this class require additional monographic materials there are sufficient funds to purchase them.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

URI subscribes to the essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions are required for this course. The Public Services Department in the library will meet with classes by appointment should the faculty member feel it would be beneficial.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs associated with the course.
