FACULTY SENATE

On March 20, 1986, the Faculty Senate approved the following new section 8.22.50 of the University Manual proposed in the Academic Standards and Calendar Committee Report #85-86-4: Commencement and amended editorially:

8.22.50 Commencement. Students who are to receive degrees may participate in the general University commencement ceremony. Only students who have satisfied all degree requirements or undergraduates who are within one course of four or fewer credits of completing these requirements may participate in the individual college ceremonies. Exception is granted to those students due to complete their baccalaureates in Medical Technology within the month that follows commencement. Other degree programs wishing to obtain an exception may apply to the Academic Standards and Calendar Committee and the Faculty Senate.
