FACULTY SENATE

On March 23, 1989, the Faculty Senate approved the establishment of the Curricular Affairs Committee Subcommittee on Student Writing recommended by the Ad Hoc Committee on Increasing Writing Proficiency as follows:

1. Addition of these passages to the By-Laws of the Faculty Senate:
 - a) 4.85 Curricular Affairs Committee Subcommittee on Student Writing. This subcommittee shall maintain liaison with the Curricular Affairs Committee and with the University College and General Education Committee for mutual information and joint action regarding the place of writing in the University's curricula.
 - b) 4.86 The Subcommittee on Student Writing shall consist of two members of the Curricular Affairs Committee, a representative of the College Writing Program, and four members of the University faculty appointed at large. The Chairperson shall be elected by its members.
2. Specific charges to Subcommittee on Student Writing about writing intensive courses and about an interdisciplinary Faculty Institute on Student Writing:

The Subcommittee on Student Writing shall report to the Faculty Senate by January 1990 on the following:

 - a) The number and type of "writing intensive" courses already in place and should make a recommendation about "writing intensive" course credits to be required for graduation.
 - b) a proposal for an interdisciplinary Faculty Institute on Writing, including recommendations on curriculum matters and the administrative structure of the Institute.
