FACULTY SENATE

On October 24, 1996, the Faculty Senate approved the addition of the following new section 4.87 of the By-Laws of the Faculty Senate recommended by the Constitution, By-Laws and University Manual Committee in its annual report for 1995-96:

4.87 The Subcommittee on Student Writing shall be responsible for guiding the WI labeling and approval process by engaging in the following activities: encouraging the development of WI courses across the curriculum; encouraging faculty to seek a WI label for appropriate courses; developing and disseminating materials for WI course approval, and actively participating in the review of WI course proposals. Further, the subcommittee shall guide the Director of the Faculty Institute on Writing in a variety of activities to support the success of WI courses.
