

C H A F F

CALENDAR

MARCH

16. "Uncle Job's" lecture on little boy and little girl hoot owls.
17. Green whiskers on casts in dining room in honor of St. Patrick.
18. Quartette Concert at the Pier.
19. Quartette Concert at Slocum's. Dancing class reception.
20. "Poison Squad" starts.
21. Dietary scales disappear, and cow barn scales are found in their place.
22. Engineering Society Elections.
23. The Misses Heath, Nutting, Kimball, and Kenyon bravely sacrifice lives and lessons to put out fire at Larkin's.
24. Buggy appears in new suit, but doffs it at noon for fear of rain.
25. Pies offered for return of dietary scales. Successful, but one more count for Theta Rho.
26. Great Easter migration.
27. A good dinner. Honest!
28. Miss Gould takes Buggy a new bug (paper). He promptly identifies it as the "Paper Bug."
29. Extra drill by the Lieutenant.
30. Seniors appear in cap and gown. Prexie advises all fussers to have carefully prepared marriage contracts, and sings annual Spring song.
31. Theta Rho meeting 11-12 P. M.

APRIL

1. Breakfast served in chapel by vote of Theta Rho. P. I. K. dance. "All cordially invited." (Admission fifty cents.) Who stole Big's shoes?
2. Y. M. C. A. lecture. No girls allowed. Must have been bad!
3. Miss Merrow calls at Sigma Delta House to take someone to church with her in Wakefield, but alas they had all gone or were going to the village church.(?)
4. Athletic Meeting. Pat Henry lectures on the value of walking to the Brown game in Providence.
5. Quartette Concert in Woonsocket.
6. Baseball: Brown—13; R. I.—5. Pat Henry, Reynolds, Elsie Easterbrooks, and Safford walk to Providence as far as Roger Williams Park.
7. Minor tries corn starch as a substitute for talcum powder.
8. Glee Club Concert in Lippitt Hall.

9. Baseball: Boston College—4; R. I.—1. Wakefield ladies attend game regardless of King Morphie's mandate to the contrary, and as a result, Bobby Kent didn't go to the game, Safford didn't collect admission, and Wade fell off the pump-house roof.
10. Barney Ahrens goes a whole day without singing the "Rosary."
11. Miss Kimball establishes herself as authority on athletics and etiquette in Davis.
12. Clark and Richmond elected temporary joint captains of 1912 baseball team.
13. Tip becomes so enraged at having to say "please" and "thank you" or starving, that he throws a cup of hot coffee at Bigelow.
14. Tag Day. No one admitted to recitations without a Small-pox card.
15. Quartette Concert in Lime Rock.
16. Baseball: R. I.—18; B. U.—4.
17. Goodie starts rendering nursery rhymes again.
18. Mr. Smith returns stolen apparatus.
19. Prof. Adams tells a joke. Class try to laugh.
20. Prexie lectures in chapel on local co-education, the substance being "the crime in committing an impropriety lies in getting caught, not in doing it."
21. Coon play in Village Hall. Town and church bells tolled. Rollins prefers dark to white meat. Aizpuru advises Prexie to visit the tropics.
22. Cross-examination of bell-ringing miscreants.
23. Baseball: W. P. I.—5; R. I.—0.
24. Sigma Delta men run as instructed by Saint John's little red book.
25. Sophs—5; Freshies—2. Soph "feed" with many fine speeches, followed by a little painting. If only Tip's cow had run a little slower!
26. Frank Sims gives 1912 paintings a gasoline finish.
27. Prexie reads selections from Mark Twain. Just which was funnier, Prexie or Mark, we haven't decided.
28. Beany and Trout exchange compliments not on "Who has the button?" but "Who has the banner?"
29. Glee Club Concert in New London. M. A. C. wins debate.
30. Choral Society Concert in Village.

MAY

1. Sigma Delta attends Church.
2. Forestry class enjoys(?) planting 1,500 trees for Dr. Leighton.
3. Girls in Nature Study class read their weekly essays with screams of rage, as the boys are excused.
4. Extra—dry chapel lecture. Prexie finishes by saying, "I hope those of you who have heard this will take it to heart."
5. Drill, drill, drill.
6. Government Inspection. Serg. Worrall devises new guard mounting.

The Orist

7. Baseball: R. I.—10; Conn.—1.
8. Ceylon Wade attends divine worship.
9. Red monkey-hats appear.
10. First drill under the rooky officers.
11. Zool. III petitions Prof. Barlow against cruelty to animals.
12. All local track "trainers" hard at work.
13. 1912 wins interclass Track Meet. Junior Prom. Great difficulty as to which twin is which.
14. Interscholastic Track Meet won by Technical High.
15. Every one sleeps.
16. Old house in village torn down, while Prof. Spencer awaits an audience for his reading.
17. Hydraulics class plays tennis.
18. Miss Cobb and Miss Andrews view Halley's Comet in the east, but find out it was only a house light.
19. Freshmen at Well's House mow the moss off the roof with a lawn mower.
20. May sale. Moving picture entitled "The Racket" makes a hit.
21. Baseball: M. A. C.—9; R. I.—5.
22. J. John Hardy, our diligent head waiter, is a trifle late to supper.
23. 1911 Grists arrive. J. John gets sore at the jokes, as usual.
24. Prexie says no more Wakefield without permission.
25. Great quiet at lunch. Why? No Co-eds present.
26. Minor dismisses Co. A at 11:40. What did the Lieut. say?
27. Last drill of the year.
28. Baseball: R. I.—9; N. H.—3. New Hampshire said it was only a practice game before, but after—?
29. Campus deserted.
30. Track Meet: R. I.—76; N. H.—41.
31. Zool III excused from lab. work. Buggy said he had a date in Wakefield.

JUNE

1. Freshmen have faculty supervised night-shirt parade and bonfire burning of Freshmen Caps.
2. Last day of recitations.
3. Exams. Harry Albro gets excited and says———! Stableman causes him to drive Mrs. Chamberlain to station and Harry says ——! ——! ——!
4. Exams. Sigma Delta Banquet at Greene's Inn, Narragansett Pier.
5. Baccalaureate Sermon. Cantata.
6. Exams.
7. Exams. Kingston Prize Essays read.
8. Class Day.
9. Commencement Exercises and Ball.
10. Grand Departure.

Vacation.

SEPTEMBER

20. First arrivals appear.
21. First chapel with usual bright remarks by Prexie. Registration.
22. Registration completed with second edition of Prexie. Recitations commence. Football mass meeting. Senator takes Block's trunk up.
23. Y. M. C. A. Reception to 1914.
24. Homesick Freshmen go home for the week end. Football: R. 1-0; M. A. C.—0.
25. Sophs teach Freshmen how to lift three men.
26. Athletic Field started. Football mass meeting.
27. First Rooky drill.
28. Kelly hoodlums infernalize more than usual.
29. Trout and Bill Tully visit Biscuit City.
30. Can we score on Tufts?

OCTOBER

1. Football: R. 1.—5; Tufts—0.
2. First Chestnuts.
3. Prexie announces that all the little children must come home on an early train from the Brown game.
4. The children prefer the "Owl" for home coming, but Prexie assumes control of the N. Y., N. H. & H.
5. Football: Brown—5; R. 1—0.
6. Some arrive back. If the "Owl" can't stop, trains run next day.
7. Vaudeville at Sigma Delta House. Tully and Nugent, in their comedy skit "Yens the Jamtors."
8. Football: R. 1. 2nd.—0; Mystic—0.
9. Chestnut parties in order.
10. Buggy assigns a day's lesson that Zool. 1, think is for the entire term.
11. No lights, so no supper until 6:20.
12. Columbus Day. Rah for old Chris! The only good thing he ever did for us school boys!
13. Rup decides that his rival, Davis, '14, must go to Thirty Acres, but can't convince the other upper class-men.
14. Informal Dance. Barney, Trout, and Rup get tangled up as to partners.
15. Power test at Hamilton. Prof. Dickinson discusses "damed water" with an "ned" sequel on pipes by Prof. Wales.
16. Fussing Sunday. Every co-ed is fussed.
17. Dr. Sechrist presents the first goose-eggs to English IV.
18. Night watchmen put off the campus.
19. Miss Henderson talks quantitative class into insanity.

The Orist

20. Drum orchestra in East Hall at 11:30 P. M.
21. Husking Bee at Eldred's.
22. Football: R. I.—23; St. Andrews—0.
23. Equestrian young ladies seen for the first time on campus.
24. Carberry and O'Keefe have tanned nails and receive H₂O blessing in village.
25. Soph-Freshmen fight in East Hall.
26. Day of Explanations.
27. More explanations.
28. Beacon sadly displeases Barney. What a shame not to give a good man his honest praise! Haw!
29. Football: R. I.—23; Conn.—0.
30. Wade goes to church. His voice is heard above that of the congregation. Singing?
31. Kelly and two fellow ruffians move to the Ockish Club.

NOVEMBER

1. Mr. Joseph Chappell gives "damn hot" talk in Chapel.
2. Tully and Hart resign from the Glee Club.
3. Fire-bell tested. Great excitement.
4. Social Room Reception.
5. Football: R. I.—19; W. P. I.—0.
6. Discussion:—Since Brown trimmed Yale 21-0; and Brown trimmed us only 5-0; we could trim Yale 16-0. Q. E. D.
7. Voters depart.
8. Election Day.
9. Three teams out in practice for N. H. game.
10. Chubby C. back with his auto on the campus.
11. Glee Club Concert in Westerly.
12. Football: R. I.—6; N. H.—0. Celebration after.
13. Herbert Reiner invites Susan to Soph Hop.
14. Road roller procession thru village at 11:30 P. M.
15. Athletic Meeting. What's the use of a constitution?
16. Debating Club elections.
17. Sophs busy at decorating.
18. Sophomore Hop.
19. Football: 1913—6; 1914—0.
20. Pink Ice Cream for lunch.
21. Basketball practice starts.
22. Lecture by Mr. Frederick Bancroft. Football Captain elected.
23. Departure for Thanksgiving Recess.

28. Labor begins again.
29. Bill Tully put on second team. Was he sore?
30. Prexie in chapel—"Hereafter all wishing to leave college for twenty-four hours or over must present a written excuse from their parents or guardian at office before they leave." How's that for kindergarten? (No excuses presented as yet, however.)

DECEMBER

1. Skunk in airshaft at Davis.
2. Glee Club Concert in Woonsocket.
3. Phys. Chem. class breaks the record in smashing apparatus.
4. Jimmy N. appears in Sarah's stocking cap.
5. Dr. Sechrist suggests a new honor system to Eng. IV. "Honors in English!" Pickles!
6. Glee Club Concert in New London, Conn.
7. Glee Club Concert in Long Island City, N. Y.
8. Glee Club Concert in Jersey City, N. J.
9. Glee Club Concert in Richmond Hill, N. Y.
10. Sen. Arnold reports bad cold and Glee Club straggles back.
11. They tell of New York.
12. They tell some more.
13. Annual Meeting of Athletic Association.
14. Lieut. Stahl calls Sigma Delta boys to shoot a skunk, but it was only a poor little cat.
15. Juniors refuse to debate.
16. Lecture: "The Man from Home," by Mr. Frye.
17. Mysterious explosion in Davis Hall. Theta Rho?
18. Sleuths on the trail of the "bombers."
19. Bobby Kent finds an apron in his laundry.
20. Dr. Sechrist on the duties of the night-watch and lack of local gentleman.
21. Basketball: R. I.—46; Yale Rovers—13
22. Basketball: Prexides—9 Brunettes—4.
23. Departure for holidays.

Christmas Holiday.

The Orist

JANUARY

5. On "The Beauty of Snakes;" Miss Nutting in Psychology I.
6. Dr. Hartwell tells a joke (chestnut) to Aggie Chem. class.
7. Basketball: R. I.—12; Brown—18.
8. 1910 reunion at Usquepaugh.
9. Visitation by Legislature.
10. First Rifle Team match.
11. Midnight serenade in East Hall.
12. Basketball: R. I.—38; N. H.—19. Bonfire, raid on Chickenville, speech by Prexie, feeds at Frats.
13. Y. W. C. U. reception to Chickens.
14. Basketball: R. I.—17; Williams—26. R. I. Girls—8; Pembroke—21.
15. Tales of Williams's life.
16. La Grippe claims its first victims.
17. Σ Δ House turned into hospital.
18. Glee Club Concert in Lippitt.
19. Barney A. appears on campus in smoking-jacket.
20. Battalion pictures taken.
21. Basketball: R. I.—22; Rensselaer P. I.—15.
22. Harris loses cap and sweater.
23. Prexie wakes the boys up in East.
24. Eben Robinson said not to be as quiet as he looks by———
25. Miss Henderson on "The Chinese as a Matrimonial Factor" in Chem. Lab.
26. Lecture by Ex-Gov. Hoch of Kansas.
27. Basketball: R. I.—23; Boston College—13.
28. Basketball: R. I.—21; N. H.—19.
29. Equestrian school before Davis.
30. Barry the first man to visit hospital in Davis. Peleg Clark a hard second.
31. Stormy Athletic Advisory Board meeting.

FEBRUARY

1. Prexie goes to sleep during lecture on Hypnotism.
2. Military Ball preparation the only business at hand.
3. Military Ball. Freshmen red ribbons!
4. Basketball: Sophs—20; Freshies—17.

5. Mysterious dish appears on supper table.
6. Arnold finds a book where he left it.
7. Last recitations attended thru a foot of snow.
8. Exams.
9. Exams.
10. Exams.
Recess.
15. Registration. Second term recitations start with no books for sale.
16. One and a half hour Athletic Association Meeting.
17. Soph Girls give select dance to Freshman Girls and friends.
(of Soph Girls.)
18. Basketball: R. L.—18; Wesleyan—48.
19. First indications of spring fever.
20. Campus snowed in.
21. Basketball: 1913—33; New London Manual Training High—12.
22. Holiday. Bell rope breaks. Why couldn't it have happened during recitations?
23. Preliminaries for M. A. C. debate started.
24. Quartette Concert in Westerly. Double Quartette Concert at Wickford assisted by College Band.
25. Basketball: R. I. Girls—2; Pembroke—26.
26. Ethel H. rejoices in Burton K's return.
27. Senate committees visit.
28. Economy in boarding hall owing to the senate dinner of the preceding day. Class Meetings:—1911 in Chapel, 1912 in Drafting Room, 1913 in 26 Lippitt Hall.

RAH RAH ROOTER READY

Rhode Island College Grapples Brown Bear and Fur Flicks at Lively Rate

BEFORE — AND — AFTER

THE BROWN GAME.

From the Providence Journal, Oct. 5th and 6th.

GRINDS

Hopkins (in chem.) "I want a match."

Miss Congdon: "Some day you may find one, but you can't have me."

Irons (seeing Elsie Easterbrooks wearing one of Prof. Lambert's buttons): "Can't you swear, smoke, chew, or drink now, Elsie?"

Elsie: "No, I can't do a _____ thing, _____ it."

Mounce (looking at a poster): "That little girl is going to give you the straight arm when you kiss her."

Irons (looking at another): "That little girl is going to bat you over the head when you kiss her."

Waldo Reiner: "My girl is better than that."

Chorus: "Oh Oh! Oh!"

Waldo: "I mean the girl on my poster."

Overheard.

I. Harris (looking at a comic poster for sale): "I don't see the sense in that."

Harry A (behind counter): "I do. It's fifty cents."

Prof. Cobb: "What flowers have stamens and pistils?"

M. I. Harris: "Albinos."

Beany D.: "We come to college to prepare ourselves for the hereafter."

Prof. Spencer: "Mr. Brooks will recite on that topic." (No answer.)

Pro: S.: "Evidently you aren't prepared, Mr. Brooks."

Class: "Brooks is absent."

Freshman: "Haven't you heard about smokeless tobacco?"

Steck: "No."

Freshman: "Chewing tobacco."

Steck: "You _____ freshman."

Whalen: "Did you hear about the fight down in the Hof-Brau?"

P. Clark: "No."

Whalen: "Two dogs got hot."

Lieut. Stahl: "What are file closers?"

Alexander: "The men who hold up the walls over in Lippitt."

Briden (referring to Mendelejeff's Periodic Arrangement): "The Periodic Arrangement According to Mutt and Jeff."

The Orist

Howes: "Dr. Leighton, would you call that a participate (precipitate)?"

Wigsell Young: "The sum of the angles in that triangle equals 197°—111!"

Cohen goes home to celebrate the Jewish New Year, and Prof. Eames asks if the absent Levi Kelly is home for the same reason.

Prof. Bills: "All writing must be printed."

Bates (coming in and finding Howes sitting in their room with all the windows open): "What kind of a berg do you think this is?"
Howes: "Iceberg."

From the Night Watchman's Book

1st. Round (Kent): One pigeon dead in Dr. Hadley's Lab.

2nd. Round (Kent): Other pigeon dead in Dr. Hadley's Lab.

3rd. Round (Minor): Same pigeons dead.

Nugent (speaking of bashful lover in "The Cotter's Saturday Night): "He sort of fiddled around."

Dr. Sechrist: "You mean he didn't enter in."

Freshmen Logic.

Boulester: "By using what you want to prove, you get just what you're trying to prove."

Irons: "This clock is going too fast for me. I wish it would slow up."

Wade: "I've been getting along as fast as Stafford's clock for the last two weeks. I stopped it."

Frequently Heard.

"My name's A——. I come from W——.

My dad's a S——; Chairman of the F—— Committee. He built this dump. Who in —— are you? You must know dad. He's a sort of stout old gent."

Black Hand.

Huling, '14, wonders who put the little note under his plate reading,—"Little children of 1914 should be seen and not heard." It had the desired effect.

Bigelow: "Who are those men?"

Harris: "Painters."

Big: "What have they been doing?"

Harris: "What do you suppose painters do, shell codfish?"

Scene: 1911 Junior Prom.

Beany stands uncertainly after a dance wondering which twin he has just danced with. Big walks down the hall, approaches a twin and says, "Is this Daisy?"—"Sure." He dances with her, when suddenly he sees the other twin regarding him accusingly. He stops and finds out that he has Dorothy, so changes just as Buggy comes up looking for Dot. This is enacted over about twenty times, with a change of masculine characters each time.

The Orist

Warner (pointing to a pile of envelopes in the office): "What are these?"

Miss ——: "Invitations to Lucy's wedding."

Bland Edwards: "My old man gave me a swell feed in Providence."

Nugent: "Cold shoulder?"

Prof. Wales (noting Gilchrest sitting on a pillow in Thermo. exam.): "What's the matter, are your brains tired?"

Bigelow (to Freshmen): "Freshmen whose names are posted as rubbers meet me at Davis Hall at 4:30 to-morrow."

Sherwin (trying to place a lady teacher): "Is she young?"

Robinson: "No, she's married."

Dr. Sechrist: "I don't mean seeing it, but seeing it,—er, you know what I mean."

Comber: "Sure, I know."

Dr. Sechrist: "A doctor can save a man's life; a lawyer his neck, and a minister his soul, perhaps."

Dr. Sechrist: "Who is Tully?" (Cicero.)

Class: "Second base on baseball team."

Prestie (in chapel): "We have some men in this college who conduct themselves in such a manner as would cause them to be fired from a business with a physical impulse behind."

Miss Congden: "Where is the N H4 C Hell?"

Dr. Hartwell: "What is the principal use of Cu So4?"

Trout: "They feed it to cows."

Tully (in Zool. I, finding skeleton in the range of his view): "Say, Prof., won't you please move that boneyard?"

Miss Nutting: "I wonder if Mr. Tyler is going to put yawnings on his house?"

Miss Thompson (hunting a book for Iola): "Since they have fixed the library, I can't find anything. I don't know where Mrs. Chamberlain puts things."

Iola: "She isn't very symmetrical, is she?"

Miss Cobb (discussing debating): "I think Ethel ought to give the debuttal."

Prof. Spencer: "What would a man notice if he went into both doors of the Kingston station at the same time?"

Heard on the Lime Rock Trip

Mrs. Harris: "Supper is ready, Bertie."

Harris: "Aren't you going to wait for Barney?"

Mrs. Harris: "Not if you're going to Attleboro before the concert!" (Supper didn't wait.)

The Orist

Prof. Spencer: "What would the effect be if a white man were to become a slave?"

Goodchild: "It would depend upon whom he married."

Slocum (in German II): "Gas ovens are used in beer-rooms."
(Lagerraumen.)

Safford (referring to graveyard): "This is a breeding pen."

Pat. Henry (at breakfast with scrambled eggs): "These eggs must have been scared this morning, they are so pale."

Miss Cobb: "Locomotion is moving, and motion is standing still."

Heard in Special Machine Shop: "Where are my caterpillars?"
(Calipers.)

Matthews: "I made a telephone when I was a kid."

Chubby: "Yesterday?"

Prof. Spencer: "The —— Co. is a sort of holding company."

Wade (waking up): "Yes, the stockholders hold their wives' hands."
(Goes to sleep again.)

Jimmy Nugent (reckoning the cost of bringing a girl down to Junior Prom): "Flowers, a dollar and a half."

Tip: "A dollar and a half? A quarter!"

Jimmy: "What do you want me to get, dandelions?"

At interscholastic Meet a high school man seeing P. I. K. hats cried:
"O see the red freshman hats! At Brown they wear brown caps."

Davis (discussing hotel work): "What are bell-boys for?"

Richmond: "To keep the ships in the channel." (Rather to keep the schooners going.)

Prof. Barlow (referring to seat under linden tree): "Near the spoon-holder."

After remarking on the unsophistication of Eng. IV, Dr. Sechrist asks, "Miss Cobb, are you here?" Who was unsophisticated?

Dr. Sechrist: "Does rain make roses red?"

Beany Doll: "Yes, and white, too."

Dr. Leighton: "Supposing a room full of gas, as this one was last period, when full of Freshmen,———"

Bobby Kent (looking at sketch of fish): "What did you draw that from?"

Dot. Elkins: "Buggy."

The Grist

Prof. Adams: "What do women keep their babies in?" (Nurseries.)
Biff: "Incubators."

Prof. Adams: "What would you think of a man you saw chopping wood on Sunday?"
Eben Robinson: "I'd think he was a Seventh-Day Baptist."

Prof. Spencer: "I will hold this book up, so that those who are not here can see it."

Prof. Cobb: "Where would you build the cellar?"
Bland Edwards: "Under the house."

Minor: "College men sometimes break down from overstudy."
Prof. Spencer: "Yes, in other colleges."

Miss Ford (as Sully drop-kicks for a goal): "Is that a forward pass?"

Pat. Healy (Agriculturalist): "There is a difference between a hyperbola and an eclipse."

Harry Albro: "Heard about Trout's watch?"
Tip Tyler: "No."
Harry: "Woman in the case."
Tip: "Gee Christmas! Oh fudget!"

Dr. Sechrist (in psychology, to Webster): "You never committed murder, possibly."

Dr. Hartwell: "What gas comes from a fermenting liquor?"
Dave Warner: "Methane."
Dr. H.: "No, it's not a swamp; but you're in a wilderness all right."

Heard at Y. M. C. A.

A reference has just been read from the Book of Isaiah.

Prof. Dickinson: "Now, Mr. Isaiah, please tell—oh! excuse me, I mean Mr. Henry."

Bob R.: "What is highway work?"
Jimmy N.: "Holding up people."

Nugent (after returning from false fire alarm): "Once again I failed to be a hero."

Carmine A. (to Beany D.): "We haven't been to Biscuit City for a long time."
Harry A.: "What? Do Unceda biscuit?"

Senior Thoughts.

John H.: "I wish I had a job in the U. S. mint."
Pat Henry: "I wish I had a job there with a wheel-barrow."

The Grist

Favorite Expressions.

- Alice Ford: "Oh! Ye-e-e-es! I see!"
Barney Ahrens: "Hello, men! Why isn't my name in the Beacon this month?"
Tip Tyler: "Gosh hang it! Gee Christmas! Oh! Fidget!"
Bill Tully: "Let George do it."
Freshie Oslin: "Good-night."
Alexander: "Please may I ask a question?" The rest is unprintable.

Prof. Barlow is dreadfully afraid of Dr. Sechrist's "big" dog. Doggie rode quite a way hanging to Prof.'s trousers not long ago.

Sophomore Wit.

Chubby C.: "He owns eighteen mills, but hasn't two cents to his name."

Harry H.: "How's that?"

Chubby: "It takes twenty mills to make two cents, doesn't it?"

Prexie: "What would you consider a good legitimate reason for borrowing money?"

Burgess: "The paying of my debts."

Burdick (arguing with Diaz): "You might as well talk to that stone post as to try to change my mind."

Mr. Tyler: "What are you doing nowadays, Daniels?"

Bill: "Working like an honest man, as you ought to be."

Inspection in South Hall.

Loud knock on Worrall's door. Dave. "Come in, you old sow!"
Enter Tip.

Going through the shady dales to Storrs from Eagleville on baseball and tennis trip, Sully and John J. were heard to remark: "Wouldn't this be a dandy place to take a walk?"

N. B. Liberal education supplied at small cost and short notice.
Apply E. P. H-and-rs-u.

Pa. (sitting down at desk in library): "Miss Elkins, would you like to sit here?"

Member of "cat" class to Miss Beale: "Do you sell scapulas?"

Miss A.: "We don't have to take Invocation of the House, do we?"

A. (accusing B. of eavesdropping): "That register of yours works pretty well, doesn't it?"

B. (calmly): "Yes. I believe it was built for the purpose of conducting hot air."

Prof. Coleman: "What is young mutton called?"

Fizz: "Veal."

The Orist

Harris (after moving desk): "I can't study facing this way, everything I learn goes backward."

Heard in 24 Davis.

Olive N.: "I want a spoon."

Harold H.: "I want an olive."

A fortune teller told Miss Bullock that two young men were ardently in love with her. Dorothy remarked to one of the girls that she really wished she knew who the other one was.

Waldo R.: "Competition in love makes a man crazy."

Rudolph R.: "Well, I'm not crazy."

There was a jolly lecturer from far across the sea,
Upon whose downy pillow our Dinah did see,—
"If used mightly, the hair will retain its natural auburn shades."

Oh! you burnt-orange paradise!

Heard in H. E. Lab.

Bess C.: "Have you washed your dishes yet, Bess?"

Bess M.: "Yes, they're all done, except my little tub."

Harris: "What's that story in the Bible about, Jack the Giant Killer?"

