The Hon. Claiborne Pell
United States Senator
United States Senate
Committee on Labor and Human Resources
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Pell:

Thank you for your letter of November 20th. Your help and kindness in our efforts to form a committee for a project on the Portraits of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence is greatly appreciated. I have told Mr. Michael A. Werboff that we spoke on the telephone, and am now communicating this written message to him. He has lots of admiration for you, and sends his best regards.

I hope my letter has reached you, and I shall contact you again to report on further development regarding the proposed project.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

William V. Sotirovich
