Dear Sir:

re: Carol Iannone

Once more the U.S. Senate has disgraced itself in the rejection of your nomination of Ms. Iannone to the Council on the Humanities.

If you let the Senate get away with this without a fight -- a tooth-and-nail fight, I will be very disappointed. The growing insistence on "Political Correctness" in our institutions is a grave danger to America. It must be opposed and you are in a position to lead the opposition.

Yours truly,

Alfred N. Ames

copies to: Senator Chafee
Senator Pell