Dear Ms. Dunn:

I want to thank you belatedly for your letter of November 3rd and report that yesterday the Senate unanimously passed S.J. Res. 26, the legislation calling for a second White House Conference on Library and Information Services.

After Congress reconvenes in January we will meet with the House of Representatives to iron out the few differences between our two proposals. We will address the limitation on the use of LSCA funds at that time. I very much appreciate knowing your position on this point and will be sure to keep it in mind as we proceed.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,
