Dear Pat:

Congratulations on your strong and most constructive letter of September 8 to Jerald Newman. He needs your perspective and strong advice since he obviously doesn't have sufficient background to understand as you do the issues you put before him. I hope it will be a positive learning experience for both Newman and the Commission! As a former NCLIS chairman, I am delighted that you are taking the time and effort you obviously have to help the Commission understand these critical issues.

Sincerely,

Charles Benton
