1) That beginning with September, 1964, the period for dropping courses without the penalty of a failing grade be extended from the present two weeks limit to a new limit of four weeks from the official opening date of a course. The new rule, if adopted, should replace the current regulation as cited in Section 1, Chapter 6, Part 2, paragraph 1.09.1, p. 66 of the current 7th, 1964, edition of the typescript Faculty Manual.
