As a U.S. Senator, knowing where you stand on Rice's situation, to wit, as the Chairman of the Senate Committee for the public and private stated promises on policies and their implementation as far as the Senate is concerned, and if not why not? But also, what can the Senate do to hold the Chairman to these policies implementation as promised?

As I am your close friend, and a friend of mine, too, I hope these are difficult questions to put and answer.

Yet a career as a family have been ruined by the improper harm from his failure to hold to his commitments. So the question is important. Sincerely, I hope you will respond. John C. Hooper Kerr P.S. Could the Senator give me an Hearing on this matter before the Committee or Sub-Committee that handles the Natural Enrichment Act? I am very worried about embarrassment that my agency could have incurred about an agency with such illegal measures after
