MEMORANDUM

September 16, 1996

To: Mark Sigurski
From: Pamela Walker
Re: Museum and Library Services Act of 1996

The Library and Museum Services Act is still struggling to be introduced. As it has now separated from the workforce development/career act, there is one small change that has to be made:

Subtitle B, Sec. 212. Purpose. Please strike (4), “to provide linkages among and between libraries and one-stop career center systems”. [p.6, lines 18-19]

In addition, we have a concern which you might be able to advise us on. In Subtitle B, Sec. 214 (2) Transfer, the money made available for 1997 will have to be turned around quickly. The involvement of the Department of Education staff might be desirable during this period when the new Institute of Museum and Library Services is being set up. Does anything in the current language prohibit the distribution of the money in a timely fashion? Do we need some reference to the transition period to enable DOE staff to assist in getting the FY’97 money out?

Alas, I need the corrected draft by early tomorrow morning, if at all possible. If I hear of a delay when I go to the floor at 2pm., I will let you know. Many, many thanks.
