The Honorable Sheldon Hackney
Chairman, National Endowment for the Humanities
1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20506

Dear Sheldon:

I am writing in support of the application of Sue Hubbell for an NEH Fellowship. Sue Hubbell was an active and valued member of the academic community when she worked at Brown University. She has written five extraordinary books, as well as numerous articles for The New Yorker, The New York Times, Smithsonian, and other publications. She was one of the original writers of the "Hers" column in The New York Times.

The project she has outlined is a fascinating work of original scholarship, of genuine historical interest. You will be receiving other recommendations on her behalf, and I wanted to add my endorsement as well.

With every good wish.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell

Dear Senator Pell:

Thank you for letting me know of your strong personal endorsement of the application submitted by Ms. Sue Hubbell.

The application has been received in the Division of Fellowships and Seminars, and we expect it to be reviewed at the November 1994 meeting of the National Council of the Humanities. You may be assured that we will give the application careful consideration.

I hope this information is helpful.

Thank you for your interest in the Endowment.

Sincerely,

Sheldon Hackney
